

Henry J. Avery

Associate

Contact Information
Email: havery@zsz.com
Phone: 212-223-3900

Mr. Avery works in antitrust and consumer class action litigation. He has worked at Zwerling Schachter since his graduation from the New York University School of Law in May of 2018.

Mr. Avery is involved in the National Prescription Opioids Litigation MDL on behalf of Native American tribes in California, Washington, and Alaska.

Outside of the office, Mr. Avery sits on the board of directors for a nonprofit serving people with developmental disabilities in his home state of Georgia.

Education

- New York University School of Law, J.D. 2018
- University of Georgia, B.A. & B.S. cum laude 2012

Bar Admissions

- Washington

Internships and Clinical Experience

- Summer Intern at the Disability Advocacy Project at Manhattan Legal Services
- Advocated for improved labor and human rights in Bangladesh at the NYU/HEC EU Public Interest Clinic in Paris