Since joining Zwerling Schachter in 1998, Ms. Shah has litigated securities, antitrust and consumer protection class actions. She has been involved in complex securities litigation including In re BP Prudhoe Bay Royalty Trust Securities Litigation, No. C06-1505 MJP (W.D. Wash.), In re Telxon Corporation Securities Litigation, 5:98-CV-2876 (N.D. Ohio), and Hayman v. PriceWaterhouseCoopers LLP, 01-CV-1078 (N.D. Ohio). In those cases, she spear-headed the discovery process, which included review and analysis of voluminous complex documents and preparation for and participation in depositions, as well as participated in briefing dispositive motions and discovery motions. Ms. Shah was also involved in Billitteri v. Securities America, Inc., et al., Civ. No. 3:09-CV-01568-F (N.D. Tex.) (Provident Royalties Litigation), representing investors against numerous brokers in a class action involving an alleged nationwide Ponzi scheme.

In the antitrust area, Ms. Shah was involved in litigating In re Cipro Cases I and II, JCCP Nos. 4154 and 4220 (Cal. Super.), where third-party payors alleged that the brand name drug manufacturer and generic drug companies participated in a reverse payment scheme. She participated in briefing summary judgment motions and motions in limine. The settlements reached in In re Cipro totaled $399 million. Currently, Ms. Shah is involved in In re Restasis, representing third-party payors alleging that the brand name drug manufacturer engaged in a scheme to keep generic versions of the drug from entering the market.

Ms. Shah also represents clients in the opioid crisis MDL litigation prosecuting RICO and antitrust claims in The Yurok Tribe v. Purdue Pharma L.P., et al. and Bear River Band of Rohnerville Rancheria v. Purdue Pharma L.P.
